

Vancouver School of Arts and Academics, a focused learning community, believes students learn best when Arts and Academics are integrated. Through collaboration and inquiry, individuals are challenged to think critically, creatively and artistically.