

WHO ARE WE?

The Columbia Future Forge is a Clark County Non-Profit program that seeks to benefit our local community by helping teens and young adults from a variety of backgrounds attain life skills and job skills through work and mentoring. The program is run by local professionals who simply believe that teenagers who hold jobs learn a great deal about who they are, what they enjoy, and how to function healthily in life.

“LIFE READY, JOB READY”

The Columbia Future Forge does not discriminate on student employment based on religious creed, race, gender, or sexuality.

WHAT WE OFFER:

- Adult mentor for each participant
- Guaranteed interview for a local job and possibility of placement
- Engaging trainings that help participants gain professional, financial, personal and spiritual skills.

TRAININGS:

- Professionalism
- Goal Setting I & II
- Personality Type/ Life Gifts

HOW WE CAN HELP:

Our culture has changed dramatically in the last 20 years. Although many advances have been beneficial, statistics show that some have not. Fewer teens are leaving high school with job experience and a clear sense of what sort of career might bring them joy. The Forge was birthed out of a desire to be a bridge that supports teens and young adults as they seek to discern their next step toward meaningful employment and a fulfilling life.
