President Donald Trump spoke to reporters in Hanoi after talks with North Korean leader Kim Jong Un ended early with no agreement.

Here are the top lines from his news conference:

Sticking points were "about sanctions"

Responding to a question about whether it was North Korea's desire to see the back of sanctions which derailed talks, Trump said it was.

"Basically they wanted the sanctions lifted in their entirety, and we couldn't do that," he said.

"He wants to denude, he just wants to do areas that are less important than what we want," Trump said of Kim.

He added that ultimately the breakdown of the summit "was about sanctions."
